REGISTRATION/ELECTION SUPERVISOR REPORT:

The Board of Elections office staff is recruiting poll workers for the 2024 election year.

The Warner Robins Redistricted Map was approved during the City of Warner Robins Council Meeting held April 17, 2023.

Board Members were given the following reports:

- April 4, 2023 Meeting Minutes
- May 2, 2023 Agenda
- Registration Numbers as of May 2, 2023
- Challenged Voters List
- Voters Registration Numbers for Rozar Park Voting Location and a map for proposed split of polling location.

Old Business:

We are on hold for redistricting because the State is doing street maintenance in GARVIS (GA Registration Voters Information System).

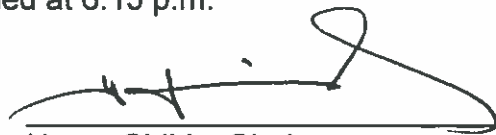

New Business:

Currently, Rozar Park polling location has over 14,000 registered voters; therefore, the Board of Elections is proposing splitting the number of voters by adding an additional polling location. A motion was made by Sherman Falana and seconded by Pamela Morgan to move some of the voters from Rozar Park polling location to Perry Event Center, the new county polling location. The proposed change will become effective in 2024. The motion carried.

A Challenged Voters list was reviewed by the Board. The electors were notified on April 27, 2023 by letter of the challenge. The voters have been given an opportunity to provide a residential address or appear before the Board on June 6, 2023.

The next board meeting will be June 6, 2023 at 5:30 p.m.

There being no further business, motion to adjourn by Andrew Bennett, seconded by Pamela Morgan. The meeting was adjourned at 6:15 p.m.
